Cincinnati Panorama, by long-time friend and supporter of spca cincinnati, Thomas R. Schiff, captures the essence of Cincinnati through the lens of his 360° camera. It is not just the camera. Tom's eye for detail and photographic art make this work a "must have" for every Cincinnatians.

Mr. Schiff has dedicated this publication to spca cincinnati and the animal friends that are assisted every day. All funds received from the sale of books goes to spca cincinnati to help with caring for our furry friends. In the last 5 years, the spca has found homes for 39,000 pets. Medical care has played an extremely critical role in saving animals discarded by people who offered them substandard treatment.

The spca's growth has been steady with the addition of our Sharonville Shelter and we look forward to expanding our sheltering of dogs and cats by building on the grounds of the spca Simmonds Farm. A brighter future for animals and our community is a reality.

Tom's kindness and benevolence has helped the spca for three decades. His work captures Cincinnati in such a meaningful way that our truly altruistic city can be an important part of the work of the spca.

Thank you, Tom, for capturing the images that will be important to current and future Cincinnatians.

Sincerely,

Jake White
