DAISY AWARD

Patricia Merida has been with spca cincinnati for 35 years. She is a dispatcher at the Northside location. She receives and dispatches animal control calls. She likes listening to people and helping them solve their problems.

Patricia is married. Her husband's name is Walter. She has three children, two grandchildren and three great grandchildren. She has a cat named Spike. In her spare time, she enjoys gardening in her yard.

Patricia reminds us that "there is no better companion than an animal."

GOOD NEWS!

My mom stopped into your agency in Spring 2001 looking for a cat to replace the roommate I just lost. I still have "Kiki" to this day. He was a black male kitten that was approximately 6 weeks old at the time. My now 5 year old daughter and husband are in love with him. Kiki is now an older cat, but he is spoiled rotten and loved. We give to honor what you did for him during his brief stay with you.

Thanks
