DAISY AWARD

Congratulations to Alexis Pangallo, she is the recipient of:

The SPCA Cincinnati's Daisy Award!

“At the SPCA I help the shelter dogs find their forever homes! I do light cleaning before we open up, and make sure the desk is prepped for potential customers. I work on the computers and help potential adopters with questions they may have on our animals. I walk adopters through every step of the adoption process, providing them with all the do’s & don’ts before taking their pet home. The most interesting thing about my job is witnessing how helpful everyone is—whether it is for me, our customers or our animals! It’s so nice to see how caring everyone is in each department. My hobbies: taking my dog on long walks on the trail, relaxing at home, painting, and being with family and friends! I have a strong relationship with my boyfriend Blake—most supportive & caring guy there is. He is always fostering & adopting dogs, so he is definitely the one! I own a 75lbs. Old English Bulldog named Dudley. He is the biggest baby you’d ever meet. Dudley is all for the cuddles & snuggles; he’s my true fur-baby. One of my favorite quotes: If you’re happy doing what you’re doing, no one can tell you you’re not successful. Always treat people with kindness.”—Alexis Pangallo

Thank you Alexis for all that you do!

AnthemEAP: Support Is Available!

NEW

Anthem's Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offers resources for these challenging times

The loss of a loved one, friend, neighbor or coworker can affect us in ways we can't put into words. Losing someone during the COVID-19 outbreak can be especially hard, as we try to come to grips with a situation that's out of our control.

It's important to know that you're not alone. We're in this together. We're here for you. Your EAP has resources to help as you cope with your loss.

If you need to speak with someone, you can call your EAP's toll-free number 24/7. You'll speak to a licensed counselor who can offer in-the-moment support, arrange a counseling referral, or provide information on resources available to you and your family.

With your EAP you have access to different types of support so you can find the resources that are right for you. There's no extra cost and they're confidential.<sup>1</sup>

- Counseling visits. Call the toll-free EAP number for a referral to a counselor or you can access LiveHealth Online for video visits for help managing grief, loss or other issues.
- Financial consultations. Speak with a certified professional to discuss financial concerns and get answers to your questions.
- Legal consultations. Speak with an attorney to discuss estate matters and other legal issues.<sup>2</sup>
- Online resources At anthemeap.com you'll find a library of grief and loss articles that range from help for grieving parents to understanding your child's grief, and more. You can also listen to the on-demand seminar Bereavement: Coping With Loss or access WellPost, a blog written by experts offering easy-to-read content on a variety of health and wellness topics.

Remember, you're not alone. Reach out to your Anthem EAP for help, today.

Teamwork Makes A Dream Work!

“Just had to share how hard everyone is working and how busy they are staying. Inside projects are done, but we have moved outside! The barn has never looked so good and we aren't even done yet! We're also doing the area beside the barn when the extra metal doors (etc.) have been stored! We are getting the vines off the fences and weeding. I am proud of everyone working together and staying busy.”

Thank you!
